

2018

The Walla Walla Fair & Frontier Days Board & Management invites you to participate in the 2018 “Kickin’ Up Pride Valley Wide” Annual Parade, Saturday, September 1st in downtown Walla Walla.

Please find enclosed the entry information, rules & regulations.

PLEASE REVIEW ALL INFORMATION CAREFULLY

Safety considerations, staging area space limitation and parade time constraints require a limit of 125 entries. That stated, every quality entry received by the August 3, 2018 entry deadline date will be approved!

It is VERY IMPORTANT to describe your entry as clearly and accurately.

Notification of acceptance with packet including line-up number will be mailed or emailed no later than August 15th. The parade packet will contain the entire parade line-up including important and specific information to make your participation as easy and fun as possible.

We look forward to your entry and know your participation will be enthusiastically enjoyed by the estimated 10,000 spectators.

New this year will be a Sweepstakes Award for the Grand Champion Overall parade entry. The winner will be recognized at the Saturday evening Frontier Days Rodeo Performance and their name engraved on a beautiful traveling trophy to be displayed all year at the winners’ location of choice.

Please let us know if you have any questions.
