Instructions

Explain why you are nominating this person for the Outstanding Senior Citizen award. Please give specific, detailed examples to assist in choosing the winners. We suggest interviewing the person you are nominating. You may also speak to people at the organizations where the nominee volunteers. All information will be held in confidence. Information submitted is not returned unless a request is made.

Judges will look for:

- Diversity of accomplishments
- How this person has touched the lives of other people in the community
- Total scope of activities, including years of service and time commitment
- Variety of services performed and involvement in organizations
- Quantity of accomplishments and amount of service
- Quality of activities, especially innovative services
- Individuals are encouraged to submit up to three letters of recommendation that focus on the candidate's achievements. No more three letters will be used in the judging process.
