

Frequently Asked Questions

- 1. This will all be possible if guidelines for large gatherings do not change. If the guidelines do change, the Fair is subject to change. These will continue to be reviewed pending all health and safety concerns that are set for large events. All are subject to change.
- 2. What parts of the Fair have been postponed?
 - a. All grandstand shows, free entertainment, food vendors, commercial booth exhibits/displays, camping, carnival, and open class exhibits will not take place.
- 3. What is the biggest change?
 - a. 4H/FFA livestock shows are being planned as a “show and go”. A “show and go” is a term for a livestock show where each specific livestock species come to the Fairgrounds on their specified day to show and go home that same day. Our plan is to hold the show on the same day as they are listed in the 2020 Fair book.
- 4. Please contact the Warren County Extension office for questions regarding static exhibits, communication and clothing event, and Clover Kids.
- 5. Will there still be open class livestock shows or static exhibits?
 - a. No.
- 6. How will we enter for 4H and FFA livestock shows?
 - a. At the Warren County Fairgrounds, June 15, 16, 17 from noon to 7 pm entries will be accepted at the Grandstand Ticket Office located east of the large animal show ring. Please use the entrance at the campground across from Fareway and drive one way, in line north to the ticket office. This will insure social distancing. Entry forms will be available. You may print your fair book online prior to coming to the grounds, or you may purchase a fair book on the grounds. Only properly ID'd animals on 4-H Online are eligible to be entered and shown.
- 7. What will Entry Fees cost?
 - a. Please read page 5 of the Fair book
- 8. What day will we show livestock?
 - a. Tentatively on the same day as it is listed in the Fair book.
- 9. Will the barns be open?

- a. Yes, social distancing will be followed, and superintendents will make stalling assignments.
- b. Showing out of trailers is not an option at this time.
- 10. Will there be trophies and ribbons given out?
 - a. Yes
- 11. Will there be an auction?
 - a. The Fair board is working on options. There may or may not be an auction like we have had in the past to transport & process animals.
 - b. 4-H & FFA members should be working to market their animals & obtain locker dates.
 - c. There is NO packer buyer for hogs.
 - d. There is a packer buyer for sheep & goats. This maybe market price only, but you have an outlet for your project. This is one option.
 - e. The fair is working with local lockers for availability.
- 12. Will the 2020 Fair book still apply to this year?
 - a. Yes. The rules stated in the Fair book still apply. Hard copy Fair books are available for $5, as well as available on the website. The hard copy Fair books are available for purchase at 701 West 2nd Avenue in Indianola and will also be available during entry week.
- 13. Will the livestock shows be open to the general public?
 - a. To be determined, not at this time due to IDPH guidelines.
- 14. Watch the website for updates, read the Extension newsletters, 4H online mail from Extension.
- 15. Please keep in touch with your 4H leader or FFA advisor for more information from them.
- 16. Will the restrooms be open?
 - a. Permanent restrooms only at this time.
- 17. Will pets be allowed?
 - a. Only service animals or dogs showing in a 4H show.
- 18. Will there be bedding?
 - a. Yes, for beef. It is part of the entry fee.
- 19. Will there be a 2021 Warren County Fair?
 - a. Yes! The dates are July 28-August 2.
- 20. Will there still be a queen?
 - a. To be determined.
- 21. Will there still be food available on the grounds?

- a. No
- 22. How can I support the Warren County Fair even though it looks different?
 - a. Sponsor or volunteer. Contact: Jo Reynolds 961-6687
- 23. My question is not on this list, who should I contact?
 - a. Contact the secretary/manager, Jo Reynolds at 961-6687.
- 24. Are there new rules for the 4H and FFA show?
 - a. To be determined.