

June 25, 1951

Washington County Fair Board met in the office of the secretary with all members present.

Mr. Davis presented plans for a cattle shed 90'x 26' which would house two rows of cattle with an estimated material cost of about $500.00. After discussion Mr. Abts moved and Mr. Nyberg seconded to proceed with the construction of this building.

Hiring of a manager was discussed with Mr. Wance Weatherton and Mr. Floyd MacDonald being considered. Secretary asked to inform them of the duties of a manager and a special meeting called for July 2nd at which time each will be interviewed.

Mr. Nyberg moved and Mr. Abts seconded the following addition to the 1951 premium book. " No exhibitor may receive more than one cash award in any one lot."

Meeting adjourned.
