

FAIR BOARD MEETING

SATURDAY, MAY 9, 1936.

The Fair Board met in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, Saturday afternoon, May 9, at 1:30. President Hesse presided, and the other member present was R. M. Banks.

The minutes of the last two meetings were read and approved as read.

The manager submitted several plans and ideas for the coming Fair, which were discussed at length.

Moved and carried that the manager be authorized to subscribe to the Billboard for 30 weeks for $2.00, and a check was made out for that amount.

It was decided to have a colt show in connection with the Fair and on the last day, spring colts and yearlings only to be exhibited.
