

Washington County Fair Livestock Exhibitors Campground Rules, Regulations, & Registration Information

Violators of any of these rules will be immediately expelled from the Campground and the Fairgrounds with their animals and forfeit all prizes and premium money. Parents, Adult Supervisors, or other Non-Exhibitors who are associated with a Youth Livestock Exhibitor staying in the campground that violates these rules will cause the youth they are responsible for, or associated with, to also be immediately expelled from the Campground and the Fair, and forfeit all prizes and premium money. Expulsion will be a joint decision between the Camping Supervisor and the Fair Manager. Violators will be escorted by security personnel as they collect their animals and move off site. All camping identification will be surrendered. Items that cannot be hand-carried from the campsite, such as a camping vehicle, must be retrieved on the Monday after fair. Any additional expenses resulting from the expulsion will be borne by the violator. There are no warnings or second chances, no exception.

- Only registered Livestock Exhibitors with 4H, FFA and Open Class may stay in the Livestock Exhibitor Campground.
- All sites are dry – No electrical or water.
