10:30am – 4pm Consumer Protection Program (Ticket Required) SPONSORED BY CALIFORNIA FAIR SERVICES AUTHORITY AND CDFA FAIRS & EXPOSITIONS

- Ruby 1
Dr. Stephen Neel and Joe Yedklik, CVFM
The Consumer Protection Program workshop helps fairs and businesses understand enteric pathogens such as E.Coli and to provide information on controlling traffic flow in all animal areas (not just petting zoos), creating proper signage, installing hand-wash areas and establishing specific cleaning protocols. This is an intensive, seven-part, workshop.
1. Introduction to enteric pathogens: what they are, the impact to fairs and fair related businesses, what's at stake
 2. Understanding enteric pathogens: some microbiology!
 3. Analyzing your facility (everyone brings maps, diagrams of their own fair and time is spent analyzing flow)
 4. Improving Operational Procedures: signage, hand-washing, waste management, etc.
 5. Site evaluation exercises: each attendee works with the expert presenters to examine their facilities and work on ideas/plans
 6. Record-keeping
 7. Creating the Consumer Protection Plan
 8. Each attendee receives a 3-ring binder with all the details from the PowerPoint presentation, templates, and tools to go home and work out a plan that is best for their fair or fair related business.

10:30am – 12:30pm IAFE - IFM #102: Be Wise Financial Management Teton 1 & 2 Dennis Magruder, Executive Director, Wes Banco Arena

- This course is ideal for new board members, staff members who may not work in the finance department, or even volunteers who want to gain knowledge about financial workings of fairs. Topics to be covered include:
- What is a financial statement?
 - Developing a Chart of Accounts
 - Using the P&L for planning
 - Budgets – defining, creating, understanding – and making them work for you.

IFM #102 – This is a for-credit course of the Institute of Fair Management. All attendees are welcome, even if not enrolled in the Institute.

1 – 4pm

CEO & Director Workshop (Ticket Required)

Crystal 1 & 2

Tammy Dennee, CMP, CAE

There are so many opportunities for leaders to say “Yes” but are we attracting the best leaders and once we have the leaders in place, are we giving them a proper orientation and setting them up to not just go through the motions of attending meetings? As staff leaders, are we communicating our expectations before the new potential board members say Yes? As leaders, we bring our “A” Game?

This Session on Governance will break down some of the roles and responsibilities of both the staff and the board. We will evaluate best management practices for learning to set goals, speak with one voice and understanding strategies for setting the table for effective meetings.

Expectations will be set by you at the start the Session. This Session is for every Board Member and Senior Staff. Don't miss your opportunity to learn and engage...while having a ton of fun!
