Western Heritage Classic Code of Ethics

I. Introduction

Purpose

The reputation for fairness and excellence depends on the collective commitment of our board of directors, officers, committee members, volunteer and employee family working together in a manner that merits trust and confidence from our communities and, most importantly, our customers. The purpose of this document is to convey those basic principles of conduct.

Objective

The primary objective of this document is to reinforce accountability for responsible and mature behavior in all who represent our organization.

II. Standards of Conduct

- a. All persons associated with our organization are expected to adhere to the spirit and the letter of all policies, procedures, rules and regulations. Illegal, immoral or unethical actions are unacceptable and willful violation shall result in appropriate disciplinary action.
- b. Each employee or volunteer must manage business affairs so as to avoid situations that might lead to conflict, or even suspicion of conflict, between one's self-interest and one's obligation to the organization or its customers. An individual's position must never be used, directly or indirectly, for private gain, to advance personal interests or to obtain favors or benefits for himself/herself or a member of his/her family.
- c. Each employee or volunteer must keep the interest of the Western Heritage Classic foremost in mind while providing assistance to spectators, performers, and participants of the Western Heritage Classic.
- d. Each employee or volunteer must acknowledge and support the proper and authorized uses of Western Heritage Classic/Expo Center of Taylor County equipment and resources.
- e. Each employee or volunteer must be honest and trustworthy, avoid harm to others, be fair and not discriminate and respect the privacy of others.
- f. Each employee or volunteer must avoid making financial commitments for the Western Heritage Classic without advance approval by the Western Heritage Classic/Expo Center of Taylor County Executive Board, President or General Manager.
- g. All statements to the media are to be approved in advance by the Committee Chair of Western Heritage Classic and/or by the Expo Center of Taylor County General Manager or their appropriate designee.

III. Monitoring the Code of Ethics

Responsibility, with commensurate authority for communicating and assuring compliance of the Code of Ethics, is placed with the President along with the Board and Committee Chair. The Executive Board shall act as a peer review committee to review any instance of misconduct, impropriety, or the appearance of either.
