

Little Britches, Beefers, Squealers, Lamb Chops and Kids Show Competition

What it is: This show competition will feature young kids and future exhibitors the opportunity to show animals in the show-ring during the County Fair. It will give these young kids a chance to get a taste for the competition of the show and hopefully encourage them to participate with their own animals when they get older.

When will it be held: Sunday at 10 AM

Sign-up: Sunday 8:00 – 9:00 in Cow Palace

Judge: Champion Showman of each species

Requirements: Must be a child 5 years of age by the 1st day of the Fair

Little Britches: Will show an animal on site or bring an animal in Sunday morning. If the animal is brought Sunday morning, the animal must be checked in with the superintendent. There will be no housing provided for these animals. The animal is to be born no earlier than March 1st.

Little Beefers: Will show a beef or dairy beef that will be brought in on Sunday. The animal must be a beef or dairy beef born no earlier than March 1st. The animal must be checked in with the superintendent. There will be no housing provided for these animals.

Little Squealers: Will show an animal on site.
